

Laura V. Schue

1902 Alder Drive, Anchorage, AK 99508 | (907) 306-2144 | Laura@SchueConsulting.com

Professional Profile

Laura's credentials include a master's degree in counseling psychology and 25 years working in leadership, facilitation, and direct services roles within the non-profit and education sectors in the fields of behavioral health, grants, and child development/ education. Laura is known for setting a bridge-building tone in diverse groups while keeping the agenda on task. She assists organizations in looking at the big picture: their mission, goals and objectives and also at the details of their work - line item budgets, detailed strategic planning matrices, and the specifics of day-to-day activities.

Project Highlights

Group Facilitation

- Strategic stakeholder and team discussions to update strategic plans, and develop values and mission-work for thread's SEED and Learn & Grow programs
- Strategic planning for multiple organizations, including ROSSIA, Inc. (Russian Orthodox Sacred Sites in Alaska, Inc.) and work with Kennedy & Associates for Anchorage Water and Wastewater Utility and the Mat-Su Health Foundation's Behavioral Health Integration Team
- Strategic wrap up session for Alaska's Early Childhood Advocacy Group
- Professional education workshops with teachers through Avant-Garde Learning Alliance, and strategic feedback discussions between school district and several rural Alaska communities
- Staff retreats for AWAIC and others, leading organizational management and staff through reflective, professional development and team-building exercises
- Professional development trainings for Child Care Connection (pre-thread and SEED) for professionals in the child care field

Education

- Board President (and Board member), Anchorage School District's Chugach Optional Elementary School Parent Teacher Association (Chugach Educational Corporation)
- Independent school teacher, administrator, and school counselor: 5th – 12th grade math and science teacher, Academic Coordinator, Middle School Coordinator, and School Counselor for K-12 school, Pacific Northern Academy in Anchorage.
- Adjunct faculty in Human Services and Degree Completion Program at Alaska Pacific University.

Fundraising/ Grants, Project Management, and Executive Services

- Grant management for multiple organizations (The Salvation Army Alaska Division, Mat-Su Senior Services, Downtown Hope Center, etc), including application, management, and reporting of over $5 million in various grants for programs across the state.
- Fund development planning with staff and Boards (Anchorage Schools Foundation, ROSSIA, etc) to reflect a strategic and individualized array of income sources to meet the needs of programs, staffing abilities, and Board commitment to fundraising to sustain or build organizational capacity.
- Project management and executive services for small nonprofit organizations, some without paid staff (ROSSIA, Anchorage Schools Foundation, Northern Culture Exchange) to develop fund development plans, plan and administer a capital campaign, donor letters, grant applications
- Research, initiation, and training for organizational use of database/ customer relationship management systems and project management software (ROSSIA).

- Management of grant award programs, including assisting applicants, review of applications and facilitation of grant review committee, awarding, and communications with grantees (Alaska Humanities Forum, Anchorage Schools Foundation). Utilization of a teaching model to assist new grant applicants, including those from rural Alaska to develop ideas, refine project goals/timelines, and build and monitor budgets.
- Provided technical assistance throughout the grant process with grant reporting, budgets, evaluation, and final product completion (The Salvation Army Alaska Division, ROSSIA, Downtown Hope Center, Mat-Su Senior Services, etc).
- Provided assistance to organizations on grant applications to the state and federal government, and foundations (The Salvation Army Alaska Division, ROSSIA, Alaska Humanities Forum, Alaska Children's Trust, etc).

Behavioral Health Trainings and Direct Services

- Facilitated individual and group therapy, in-home family therapy, child therapy, and care coordination as Licensed Professional Counselor and Chemical Dependency Counselor I (Cook Inlet Tribal Council).
- Conducted staff training and facilitated group discussions on topics such as child abuse and neglect identification and response, ethics, boundaries, communication, mental health and substance abuse co-occurring challenges, and case management (Cook Inlet Tribal Council, AWAIC, etc).
- With a master's degree in Counseling Psychology and a Certificate in Rural Human Services, Laura's training blends traditional and culturally appropriate methods with Western academics and best practices. Her work with Native Alaskans has been a highlight of her career, and the native Inupiaq name bestowed upon her, Suluaq, is something she treasures. This name was given her by the late Inupiaq elder Bertha Jennings from Kotzebue. It means "possession of wonderful things."
